Parking is $5 per vehicle on weekends.

Join OC Parks staff and volunteers in enhancing Mile Square Regional Park's lake habitat for local wildlife. Activities may include removing trash, cleaning the lake, collecting fishing line and learning about the plants and animals found within the park.

The program begins at the south lake near the Euclid Street entrance. No experience necessary. Participants are encouraged to bring a hat, sunscreen, snacks and a refillable water bottle. Tools will be provided. Community service hours verification available for those who need it.

Minors 16 and younger must be accompanied by a guardian.

Advance registration is recommended, but walk-ins are welcome. Feel free to drop in during this time frame to join for as long as you like.

Adverse weather will cancel the program.
